

O God, Guide Me

Words of 'Abdu'l-Bahá

Music by: Avilda Reid

1. Unison - mf
2. Descant mf, melody soft
3. Melody loud, descant soft

The musical score is written in 4/4 time and consists of three systems. The first system includes a Descant and a Melody. The second system includes a Descant (D) and a Melody (M). The lyrics are: "O God, guide me, pro - tect me, ill - u - mine the lamp of my heart _____ and make me a brill - iant star. Thou art the Migh - ty and Po - wer - ful." The descant parts are marked with a '5' above the staff, indicating a fifth finger position. The melody parts are marked with a '5' above the staff, indicating a fifth finger position. The descant parts are marked with a '5' above the staff, indicating a fifth finger position.

Descant

Melody

D

M

5

5

5

O God, guide me, pro - tect me, ill - u - mine the lamp of my heart _____ and

O God, guide me, pro - tect me, ill - u - mine the lamp of my heart and make me a brill - iant star. Thou art the Migh - ty and Po - wer - ful.

make me a brill - iant - star. Thou art the Migh - ty and Po - wer ful.

© 1966

(5/9/66) Composed by Mrs. Avilda Reid whilst visiting Sutherland Bahá'í Community, Aug/Sept 1966.

PDF created from Finale by Alan Manifold on 27/05/2024