Detailed description: This is a musical score for the hymn 'Our Lord has Come'. It consists of five staves. The first staff is for a Solo voice, the second for Soprano (S.) and Alto (A.), the third for Tenor (T.) and Bass (B.), and the fourth and fifth for Piano (Pno.). The music is in a 3/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The lyrics are 'lláh has come. Sing praise!' and are repeated for each vocal part. The piano accompaniment features chords in the right hand and a simple melodic line in the left hand.

Our Lord Has Come

For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be ... Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light: the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

Matthew 24: 27, 29-30.

'Have the verses been sent down?' Say 'Yea. by Him Who is the Lord of the heavens!' 'Hath the hour come?' 'Nay, more, it hath passed, by Him Who is the Revealer of clear tokens. Verily, the Inevitable is come, and He, the True One hath appeared with proof and testimony.'

Tablets of Bahá'u'lláh, p. 117.

Say, O followers of the Son! ... Say, Lo! The Father is come, and that which ye were promised in the Kingdom is fulfilled! This is the Word which the Son concealed, when to those around Him He said: 'Ye cannot bear it now.' ... Say, verily, He hath testified of Me, and I do testify of Him. Indeed, He hath purposed no one other than Me.

Tablets of Bahá'u'lláh, pp. 9-11.

Verily I say, this is the Day in which mankind can behold the Face, and hear the Voice of the Promised One. The call of God hath been raised, and the light of His countenance hath been lifted up upon men.
