

Staunch and Firmly Rooted

Words of 'Abdu'l-Bahá

Round in four parts

Music by Alan Manifold

I
The main thing _____ is to re - main staunch and firm - ly

5 8 II
roo-ted, and per - se - vere to the end. It is my hope that through the

11 III
high _____ en - dea - vours of the hand - maids of the Lord, those 17

foot-hills and that o - cean shore _____ will grow so bright, so bright with the love of

23 IV
God _____ as to cast their beams, to cast their beams to the ends of the 30

earth, _____ the ends of the earth. [The]