

His glorious Sun has Risen.

Words & Music
by E. R. WAITE.

His glo - rious Sun has ris - en, to set for us no Go tell the joy - ous tid - ings: His King - dom now hath He came and dwelt a mong us, with all His won - drous more; The ech - o of His prais - es now rings from shore to come! Where - in all pain and sor - row, and ev - 'ry doubt suc - pow'rs; His Love embraced all na - ture the birds, the trees, the shore; He came to ban - ish dark - ness, to show the per - fect cumb; Es - tablish'd here on earth it is, and "who - so - ev - er flow'rs, King of a Roy - al King - dom, we praise Thy Ho - ly way. This is the ra - diant morn - ing of the mill - en - nial day! will" May en - ter in, and love di - vine and peace his heart' l fill.

Name; Thy glo - rious Sun has ris - en, its Light no more to wane!