

Tablet of 'Abdu'l-Bahá

♩ = M.M. = 50

O servant of the One True God! The Lord be praised, the loved ones of God are found in e - -very land, and are, one and all, neath the shadow of the Tree of Life and under the protection of His good providence.

His care and loving-kindness surge e- ven as the eternal billows of the sea, and His ble-ssings are continually showered from His eter-nal King-dom.

Ours should be the prayer that His blessings may be vouchsafed in still grea-ter abundance and ours to hold fast to such means as shall ensure a fu-ller out-pou-ring of His grace and a greater measure of His divine assi- -stance. One of the greatest of these means is the spirit of true fellow-ship and loving communion among the friends. Remember the saying:

'Of all pilgrimages the greatest is to re-lieve the sorrow-la - den heart.'

Of all pil - -gri-ma-ges the grea-test is

Of all pil - -gri-ma-ges the grea-test is

Of all pil - -gri-ma-ges the grea-test is

to re - -lieve the sorrow - la - den heart.

to re - -lieve the sorrow - la - den heart.

to re - -lieve the sorrow - la - den heart.
